LB05102
MECHANIC ASSISTANT

Level 2

Reports to (Hierarchical)
Mechanic

Reports to (Functional)
Mechanic

Job Family
Logistics and Supply

Main Purpose
Carrying out tasks with regards to the servicing, repair and maintenance of MSF vehicle fleet and motorised engines in the mission according tMSF standards and procedures and the mechanic's instructions, in order to ensure the proper running of the vehicles and equipment

Accountabilities
- Performing tasks as per the mechanic's instructions, testing vehicles after each service is concluded and before it is handed back to the driver This includes but are not limited to the following:
  - Carrying out A services on vehicles and basic services on motorized engines (generators, pumps, etc.), according to the instructions listed in the log book oMSF documents, and if possible assisted by the drivers. Carrying out B services in big workshops and assisting with B and C services for vehicles, and major services for motorized engines, under the mechanic's supervision
  - Performing maintenance activities of all motorized machinery (water pumps, generators, etc.), as well as other mechanical installations
  - Filling in logbook regarding services, spare parts, repairs and maintenance carried out in each vehicle and motorized machinery and mechanical installations. Filling in stock cards of spare parts and carrying out physical stock inventory on a regular basis
  - Supervising vehicle documentation completeness (registration papers, insurance, radio licenses, etc.) and informing line manager if something is missing or soon expiring
- Ensuring cleanliness of common working areas
- Ensuring proper use, storage and maintenance of the equipment and tools provided. Assisting in identifying spare parts, consumables and tools required for all vehicles and reporting material needs and informing line manager about levels of stock and quality of different spare parts and consumables
- Informing superiors of any any mechanical or other problems related to the vehicles and when repairs are required as a result of inappropriate driving or use of vehicles and equipment.
- If requested by the line manager, assisting in briefing and training of all drivers regarding services and maintenance of vehicles and trainingMSF staff about correct use and basic maintenance of all types of engines

Education

Desirable diploma on mechanics or related technical training. Driving license for vehicles

Experience

At least one year in a related job

Languages

Essential, local language. Desirable mission language

Competencies

- Commitment to MSF Principles L1
- Behavioural Flexibility L1
- Stress Management L1
- Results and Quality Orientation L1
- Teamwork and Cooperation L1
- Service Orientation L1

Generated at 2026-11-03 08:10:45 +0000

© 2026 MSF International